<td>Unmanned aircraft: state and local regulation: limitations.</td>
<td>AB 1190, as introduced, Irwin. Unmanned aircraft: state and local regulation: limitations. Existing law prohibits a person from knowingly and intentionally operating an unmanned aircraft system on or above the grounds of a state prison, a jail, or a juvenile hall, camp, or ranch. Existing law provides a local public entity or employee with immunity as to any person engaging in hazardous recreational activity, as defined, and for damage to an unmanned aircraft while the local entity or employee is providing emergency services. Existing law defines &quot;unmanned aircraft&quot; and other terms for purposes of these provisions. This bill would, among other things, prohibit a state or local agency from adopting any law or regulation that bans the operation of an unmanned aircraft system. The bill would include the operation of small unmanned aircraft systems within the definition of hazardous recreational activity for purposes of public entity liability. The bill would authorize a state or local agency to adopt regulations to enforce a requirement that a small unmanned aircraft system be properly registered under existing federal regulations. The bill would also authorize a state or local agency to require an unmanned aircraft operator to provide proof of federal, state, or local registration to licensing or enforcement officials. The bill would define terms for purposes of these provisions.</td>

Newspapers; legal notice and publications, requirements.

Alters the requirements for newspapers that may be used for legal notices and publications by (i) changing the publication and circulation requirement from 24 consecutive weeks to at least 50 of the preceding 52 weeks and requiring such publication be in printed form; (ii) requiring that such a newspaper provide general news coverage of the area in which the notice is to be published; and (iii) requiring that such a newspaper have a periodicals mailing permit issued by the United States Postal Service. The bill further provides that a newspaper that lacks a periodicals permit issued by the United States Postal Service may petition the circuit court for the jurisdiction in which such notices or publications are to be published, as opposed to where such newspaper is located as current law requires, for the authority to be certified as a newspaper of general circulation. The bill further allows a locality that determines that no newspaper published in such locality otherwise meets the requirements that enable it to be a newspaper for the use of such notices and publications to petition the circuit court in the jurisdiction in which such notices and publications are to be published for the authority to be published in another medium. The bill specifies that such petition shall not be filed without majority approval of the locality's local governing body. The bill requires that any newspaper authorized to publish such notices and publications shall also (a) print such notices and publications in a prominent location in such newspaper with an identifying heading in boldface letters no smaller than 24-point type and (b) maintain at least three years' worth of print archives of such newspaper and make such archives available for public inspection. The bill further requires that a newspaper shall post a notice on the newspaper's website, if such a website is published by such newspaper, and on a searchable, statewide repository website established and maintained as a joint venture of the majority of Virginia newspapers as a repository for such notices. The bill provides that any notice published on a website shall be accessible to the public at no charge.

Virginia Telephone Privacy Protection Act; transmission of caller identification information.

Description
Virginia Telephone Privacy Protection Act; transmission of caller identification information. Prohibits any person, with the intent to defraud, harass, cause harm, or wrongfully obtain anything of value, from making, placing, or initiating a call or text message or engaging in conduct that results in the display of misleading, false, or inaccurate caller identification information on the receiving party's telephone. The measure prohibits conduct to otherwise (i) circumvent caller identification technology that is designed to allow the receiving party to identify the telephone number, location, or organization from which the call or text message originates or (ii) misrepresent the origin and nature of the call or text message. The measure also prohibits a person, with such intent, from displaying (a) a Virginia area code on the recipient's caller identification system unless the person making, placing, or initiating the call or text message maintains a physical presence in the Commonwealth or (b) the receiving party's telephone number on the contacted party's caller identification system. A violation of these provisions is subject to the remedies provided in the Virginia Telephone Privacy Protection Act (§ 59.1-510 et seq.).

Title
California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018.

Description
AB 25, as amended, Chau. California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018. Existing law, the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018, beginning January 1, 2020, grants consumers various rights with regard to their personal information held by businesses, including the right to request a business to disclose specific pieces of personal information it has collected. Collected and to have information held by that business deleted, as specified. Existing law imposes certain responsibilities on the Attorney General in connection with the act, including the creation of regulations and providing guidance on how to comply with the act. Existing law defines “consumer” as a natural person who is a California resident, as defined in a specific regulation, however identified, including by any unique identifier. This bill would exclude from the definition of “consumer” a natural person whose personal information has been collected by a business in the course of a person acting as a job applicant or as an employee, contractor, or agent, on behalf of the business, to the extent their personal information is used for purposes compatible with the context of that person's activities for the business as a job applicant, employee, contractor, or agent of the business. This bill would state the intent of the Legislature to enact legislation relating to the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018. Clarify how a business shall comply with a consumer's request for specific pieces of information in a privacy protective manner.

Title
Customer loyalty programs.

Description
AB 846, as amended, Burke. Customer loyalty programs. Existing law, the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018, beginning on January 1, 2020, grants a consumer various rights with regard to personal information relating to that consumer that is held by a business. Among these rights, the act allows a consumer to opt out of having the consumer's personal information sold to third parties by a business, and the act requires a business that sells a consumer's personal information to third parties to give that consumer notice, as specified. The act prohibits a business from discriminating against the consumer for exercising any of the consumer's rights under the act, except that a business may offer a different price, rate, level, or quality of goods or services to a consumer if the differential treatment is reasonably related to value provided to the consumer by the consumer's data. The act authorizes a business to enter into a financial incentive program only if the consumer affirmatively consents, subject to revocation at any time by the consumer, to the material terms of the incentive program, and the act requires a business that offers a financial incentive to a consumer to notify the consumer of the financial incentive, as specified. The act further prohibits a business from using a financial incentive practice that is unjust, unreasonable, coercive, or usurious in nature. This bill would, instead, prohibit a business from discriminating against the consumer for exercising any of the consumer's rights under the act, except if the differential treatment is reasonably related to value provided to the business by the consumer's data. The bill would prohibit a business from using an incentive practice that is coercive or usurious in nature and would specify that a consumer is authorized to enter into an incentive program only if the consumer gives prior consent, which the consumer may revoke at any time. The bill would also strike an inconsistent cross-reference. This bill would express the intent of the Legislature to enact legislation that would clarify that the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018 does not prohibit a consumer from choosing to participate in a customer loyalty program that offers incentives such as rewards, gift cards or certificates, discounts, or other benefits and would further clarify that a business that offers a customer loyalty program may continue to offer rewards, gift cards or certificates, discounts, or other benefits associated with a customer loyalty program in a manner that is reasonably anticipated within the context of a business's ongoing relationship with a consumer.

California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018.

Description
AB 873, as amended, Irwin. California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018. Existing law, the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018, beginning on January 1, 2020, grants consumers various rights with regard to their personal information held by businesses, including the right to request a business to disclose specific pieces of personal information it has collected. Know what categories of personal information and the specific pieces a business collects and to have information held by that business deleted, as specified. Existing law imposes certain responsibilities on the Attorney General in connection with the act, including creating regulations and providing guidance on how to comply with the act. The act excludes from the definition of personal information consumer information that is deidentified, or aggregate consumer information. The act defines “deidentified” to mean information that cannot reasonably identify, relate to, describe, be capable of being associated with, or be linked, directly or indirectly, to a particular consumer, provided that a business using deidentified information has implemented technical safeguards that prohibit reidentification of the consumer to whom the information may pertain, has implemented business processes specifically prohibiting reidentification of the information to prevent inadvertent release, and makes no attempt to reidentify the information. This bill would revise the definition of “deidentified” to instead mean information that does not reasonably identify or link, directly or indirectly, to a particular consumer, provided that the business makes no attempt to reidentify the information and takes reasonable technical and administrative measures designed to ensure that the data is deidentified, publicly commits to maintain and use the data in a deidentified form, and contractually prohibits recipients of the data from trying to reidentify it. (2) Existing law defines “personal information,” as, among other information, that which is capable of being associated with a particular consumer or household. This bill would remove from the scope of the above definition information that “is capable of being associated with” and would also remove the term “household” from this definition. (3) Existing law specifies that the act is not to be construed to require a business to reidentify or otherwise link information that is not maintained in a manner that would be considered personal information. This bill would revise this language to delete the reference to information that is not maintained in “a manner that would be considered personal information.” The bill would instead refer to information that is not maintained in personally identified form. The bill would make additional conforming ...

California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018.

Description
AB 874, as amended, Irwin. California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018. Existing law, the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018, beginning on January 1, 2020, grants consumers various rights with regard to their personal information held by businesses, including the right to request a business to disclose specific pieces of personal information it has collected. collected and the right to request a business to delete any personal information collected by the business. The act generally provides for its enforcement by the Attorney General, but also provides for a private right of action in certain circumstances. This bill would state the intent of the Legislature to enact legislation relating to the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018. The act defines "personal information" to mean information that identifies, relates to, describes, is capable of being associated with, or could reasonably be linked, directly or indirectly, with a particular consumer or household. The act excludes "publicly available information" from the definition of "personal information," and defines the term "publicly available" to mean information that is lawfully made available from federal, state, or local government records, if any conditions associated with that information. Existing law further specifies that information is not "publicly available" if that data is used for a purpose that is not compatible with the purpose for which the data is maintained and made available in the government records or for which it is publicly maintained and specifies that "publicly available" does not include consumer information that is deidentified or aggregate consumer information. This bill would redefine "publicly available" to mean information that is lawfully made available from federal, state, or local records. The bill would delete the above language specifying the conditions in which that information is not "publicly available." The bill would, instead, provide that "personal information" does not include deidentified or aggregate consumer information.

Consumer privacy protection.

Description
AB 950, as introduced, Levine. Consumer privacy protection. Existing law prohibits a business from requesting medical information directly from an individual regardless of whether the information pertains to the individual, and using, sharing, or otherwise disclosing that information for direct marketing purposes unless certain requirements are met, including that it disclose that it is obtaining the information to market or advertise products, goods, or services to the individual and that it obtain consent for the information to be used or shared for that purpose, as specified. This bill would require a business that conducts business in California, and that collects a California resident's consumer data, to disclose to the consumer the monetary value to the business of their consumer data by posting the average monetary value to the business of a consumer's data, including that information in its privacy policy posted on its internet website, and also including in its privacy policy disclosure of any use of a consumer's data that is not directly or exclusively related to the service that the consumer has contracted the business to provide, as specified. The bill would also require a business that conducts business in California, that collects a California resident's consumer data, and that sells that data, to disclose to the consumer the average price it is paid for a consumer's data and to disclose to the consumer the actual price it was paid for a consumer's data upon receipt of a verifiable request for that information from the consumer. This bill would also establish the Consumer Data Privacy Commission comprised of members of academia, civil society, and industry to provide guidance to the Legislature regarding appropriate metrics and methodology for determining the value of consumer data. The bill would require the commission to report its findings to the Legislature on or before January 1, 2021.

Personal information: data breaches.

Description
AB 1035, as introduced, Mayes. Personal information: data breaches. Existing law defines and regulates the use of personal information by businesses. Existing law requires a person or business, as defined, that owns or licenses computerized data that includes personal information to disclose, as specified, any breach of the security of the system following discovery or notification of the breach. Existing law requires the disclosure to be made in the most expedient time possible and without unreasonable delay consistent with the legitimate needs of law enforcement, as provided, and other security and investigative measures. This bill would, instead, require a person or business, as defined, that owns or licenses computerized data that includes personal information to disclose any breach of the security of the system within 72 hours following discovery or notification of the breach, subject to the legitimate needs of law enforcement, as provided. The bill would also make nonsubstantive changes.

Personal information.

Description
AB 1355, as introduced, Chau. Personal information. Existing law, the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018, operative January 1, 2020, grants a consumer various rights in connection with a business, as defined, that collects the consumer’s personal information. The act defines various terms for these purposes. The act excludes publicly available information, as defined, from the definition of personal information and excludes both consumer information that is deidentified, as defined, and aggregate consumer information, as defined, from the definition of publicly available. Thus, the act does not exclude, as publicly available information, any either consumer information that is either deidentified or aggregated. This bill would, instead, exclude consumer information that is deidentified or aggregate consumer information from the definition of personal information. The bill would also make nonsubstantive changes to the definition provisions.

Title
Business: collection and disclosures of Consumer personal information.

Description
AB 1416, as introduced, Cooley. Business: collection and disclosures of Consumer personal information. Existing law, the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018, beginning on January 1, 2020, grants a consumer various rights with regard to personal information relating to that consumer that is held by a business, including the right to know the categories of personal information, and the specific pieces of personal information, that a business collects about the consumer. Existing law declares that the act does not restrict a business's ability to, among other things, comply with federal, state, or local laws. This bill would specify that the act also does not restrict a business's ability comply with any rules or regulations. The bill would further specify that the act does not restrict a business's ability to collect, use, retain, sell, authenticate, or disclose personal information in order to: (1) exercise, defend, or protect against legal claims, (2) protect against or prevent fraud or unauthorized transactions, (3) protect against or prevent security incidents or other malicious, deceptive, or illegal activity, or (4) investigate, report, or prosecute those responsible for protecting against fraud, unauthorized transactions, and preventing security incidents or other specified activities. The bill would additionally specify that the act does not restrict a business's ability to collect, use, retain, sell, authenticate, or disclose a consumer's personal information for the purpose of assisting another person or government agency to conduct specified activities.

Title
Consumer privacy: consumer request for disclosure methods.

Description
AB 1564, as introduced, Berman. Consumer privacy: consumer request for disclosure methods. Existing law, the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018, commencing January 1, 2020, grants a consumer various rights with regard to the consumer's personal information that a business collects, discloses for a business purpose, or sells. Among these rights, the act authorizes a consumer to request that a business that collects, discloses for a business purpose, or sells the consumer's personal information to disclose to the consumer specified information related to those activities. The act imposes certain responsibilities on the Attorney General in connection with the act, including the creation of regulations and providing guidance on how to comply with the act. The act provides that an above-described business is required, in a form that is reasonably accessible to consumers, to make available to consumers 2 or more designated methods for submitting requests for specified information required to be disclosed, including, at a minimum, a toll-free telephone number, and, if the business maintains an internet website, a website address. This bill would, instead, require the business, in a form that is reasonably accessible to consumers, to make available to consumers a toll-free telephone number or an email address for submitting requests for information required to be disclosed, as specified. The bill would, if the business maintains an internet website, require the business to make the internet website address available to consumers to submit requests for information required to be disclosed, as specified.

California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018: consumer remedies.

Description
SB 561, as introduced, Jackson. California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018: consumer remedies. (1) Existing law, the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018, beginning on January 1, 2020, grants a consumer various rights with regard to personal information relating to that consumer that is held by a business, including the right to know what personal information is collected by a business and to have information held by that business deleted, as specified. The act specifically authorizes a consumer whose nonencrypted or nonredacted personal information, as defined, is subject to unauthorized access and exfiltration, theft, or disclosure as a result of the business's failure to maintain reasonable security procedures to institute a civil action for various damages. This bill would expand a consumer's rights to bring a civil action for damages to apply to other violations under the act. (2) Under existing law, a business or third party may seek the opinion of the Attorney General for guidance on how to comply with the act. This bill would instead specify that the Attorney General may publish materials that provide businesses and others with general guidance on how to comply with the act. (3) Under existing law, a business, service provider, or other person that violates the act is subject to an injunction and is liable for a civil penalty for each violation, which is assessed and recovered in a civil action by the Attorney General. Existing law specifies that a business is in violation of the act if it fails to cure an alleged violation within 30 days after being notified of alleged noncompliance. This bill would delete the 30-day period in which to cure after receiving notice of an alleged violation. The bill would also make related and conforming changes to those provisions.

Existing law prohibits a business from discriminating against a consumer because of the consumer's exercise of rights under the act and specifies that a business may offer a different price, rate, level, or quality of goods or services to the consumer if that price or difference is directly related to the value provided to the consumer by the consumer's data.
