Unmanned aircraft: state and local regulation: limitations.

Description
AB 1190, as amended, Irwin. Unmanned aircraft: state and local regulation: limitations. Existing law prohibits a person from knowingly and intentionally operating an unmanned aircraft system on or above the grounds of a state prison, a jail, or a juvenile hall, camp, or ranch. Existing law provides a state or local public entity or employee with immunity as to any person engaging in hazardous recreational activity, as defined, and for damage to an unmanned aircraft while the local entity or employee is providing emergency services. Existing law defines “unmanned aircraft” and other terms for purposes of these provisions. Existing federal regulations, adopted and administered by the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), regulate the operation of unmanned aircraft and unmanned aircraft systems. Existing federal regulations generally preclude enforcement of these regulations by state or local entities, except in certain areas such as police use, and prohibiting use for voyeurism, following consultation with the FAA. This bill would, among other things, prohibit a state or local agency from adopting any law or regulation that bans the operation of an unmanned aircraft system. The bill would also authorize a local agency to adopt regulations to enforce FAA regulations regarding the operation of unmanned aircraft systems and would authorize local agencies to regulate the operation of unmanned aircraft and unmanned aircraft systems within their jurisdictions, as specified. The bill would also authorize a local agency to require an unmanned aircraft operator to provide proof of federal, state, or local registration to licensing or enforcement officials. The bill would include the operation of small unmanned aircraft systems within the definition of hazardous recreational activity for purposes of public entity liability, and would authorize a local entity to designate a recreational operating area for unmanned aircraft operation. The bill would immunize a local entity that designates such a recreational area from liability for injury or damage associated with unmanned aircraft operation, if specified signage is posted. The bill would define terms for purposes of these provisions.

Newspapers; legal notice and publications, requirements.

Alters the requirements for newspapers that may be used for legal notices and publications by (i) changing the publication and circulation requirement from 24 consecutive weeks to at least 50 of the preceding 52 weeks and requiring such publication be in printed form; (ii) requiring that such a newspaper provide general news coverage of the area in which the notice is to be published; and (iii) requiring that such a newspaper have a periodicals mailing permit issued by the United States Postal Service. The bill further provides that a newspaper that lacks a periodicals permit issued by the United States Postal Service may petition the circuit court for the jurisdiction in which such notices or publications are to be published, as opposed to where such newspaper is located as current law requires, for the authority to be certified as a newspaper of general circulation. The bill further allows a locality that determines that no newspaper published in such locality otherwise meets the requirements that enable it to be a newspaper for the use of such notices and publications to petition the circuit court in the jurisdiction in which such notices and publications are to be published for the authority to be published in another medium. The bill specifies that such petition shall not be filed without majority approval of the locality’s local governing body. The bill requires that any newspaper authorized to publish such notices and publications shall also (a) print such notices and publications in a prominent location in such newspaper with an identifying heading in boldface letters no smaller than 24-point type and (b) maintain at least three years’ worth of print archives of such newspaper and make such archives available for public inspection. The bill further requires that a newspaper shall post a notice on the newspaper’s website, if such a website is published by such newspaper, and on a searchable, statewide repository website established and maintained as a joint venture of the majority of Virginia newspapers as a repository for such notices. The bill provides that any notice published on a website shall be accessible to the public at no charge.

California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018.

Description
AB 25, as amended, Chau. California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018. Existing law, the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018, beginning January 1, 2020, grants consumers various rights with regard to their personal information held by businesses, including the right to request a business to disclose specific pieces of personal information it has collected and to have information held by that business deleted, as specified. Existing law imposes certain responsibilities on the Attorney General in connection with the act, including the creation of regulations and providing guidance on how to comply with the act. Existing law defines “consumer” as a natural person who is a California resident, as defined in a specific regulation, however identified, including by any unique identifier. This bill would exclude from the definition of “consumer” a natural person whose personal information has been collected by a business in the course of a person acting as a job applicant to, or as an employee, contractor, or agent, an employee of, a contractor of, or an agent on behalf of, the business, to the extent their personal information is collected and used solely for purposes compatible with the context of that person's activities for the business role as a job applicant, employee, contractor, or agent of the business. The bill would also define “contractor” for purposes of that provision. This bill would state the intent of the Legislature to clarify how a business shall comply with a consumer's request for specific pieces of information in a privacy protective manner.

Customer loyalty programs.

Description
AB 846, as amended, Burke. Customer loyalty programs. Existing law, the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018, beginning on January 1, 2020, grants a consumer various rights with regard to personal information relating to that consumer that is held by a business. Among these rights, the act allows a consumer to opt out of having the consumer's personal information sold to third parties by a business, and the act requires a business that sells a consumer's personal information to third parties to give that consumer notice, as specified. The act prohibits a business from discriminating against the consumer for exercising any of the consumer's rights under the act, except that a business may offer a different price, rate, level, or quality of goods or services to a consumer if the differential treatment is reasonably related to value provided to the consumer by the consumer's data. The act authorizes a business to enter a consumer into a financial incentive program only if the consumer affirmatively consents, subject to revocation at any time by the consumer, to the material terms of the incentive program, and the act requires a business that offers a financial incentive to a consumer to notify the consumer of the financial incentive, as specified. The act further prohibits a business from using a financial incentive practice that is unjust, unreasonable, coercive, or usurious in nature. This bill would, instead, prohibit a business from discriminating against the consumer, by charging higher prices or providing a lower level of goods or services, for exercising any of the consumer's rights under the act, except if the differential treatment would prohibit the act from being construed to prohibit a business from offering a different price, rate, level, or quality of goods or services to a consumer if the offering is in connection with a consumer's voluntary participation in a loyalty, rewards, premium features, discount, or club card program, as defined, or is in connection with the offering for a specific good or service whose functionality is directly related to the collection, use, or sale of the consumer's data. The bill would prohibit a business from offering loyalty, rewards, premium features, discounts, or club card programs that are unjust, unreasonable, coercive, or usurious in nature. The bill would also strike an inconsistent cross-reference as well as the consent and notification provisions related to a financial incentive program, as described above.

California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018.

Description
AB 873, as amended, Irwin. California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018. (1) Existing law, the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018, beginning on January 1, 2020, grants consumers various rights with regard to their personal information held by businesses, including the right to know what categories of personal information and the specific pieces a business collects and to have information held by that business deleted, as specified. Existing law imposes certain responsibilities on the Attorney General in connection with the act, including creating regulations and providing guidance on how to comply with the act. The act excludes from the definition of personal information consumer information that is deidentified, or aggregate consumer information. The act defines “deidentified” to mean information that cannot reasonably identify, relate to, describe, be capable of being associated with, or be linked, directly or indirectly, to a particular consumer, provided that a business using deidentified information has implemented technical safeguards that prohibit reidentification of the consumer to whom the information may pertain, has implemented business processes specifically prohibiting reidentification of the information to prevent inadvertent release, and makes no attempt to reidentify the information. This bill would revise the definition of “deidentified” to instead mean information that does not identify, and is not reasonably linkable, directly or indirectly, to a particular consumer, provided that the business makes no attempt to reidentify the information and takes reasonable technical and administrative measures designed to ensure that the data is deidentified, publicly commits to maintain and use the data in a deidentified form, and contractually prohibits recipients of the data from trying to reidentify it. (2) Existing law defines “personal information,” as, among other information, that which is capable of being associated with or could reasonably be linked, directly or indirectly, with a particular consumer or household. This bill would instead specify that personal information includes, but is not limited to, specified information that, among other things, is reasonably capable of being associated with, or could be reasonably linked, directly or indirectly, with a particular consumer or household. (3) Existing law specifies that the act is not to be construed to require a business to reidentify or otherwise link information that is not maintained in a manner that would be considered personal information. This bill would revise this language to delete the reference to information that is not maintained in “a manner that would be considered personal information.” The bill would instead refer to information that is not maintained...

Description
AB 874, as amended, Irwin. California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018. Existing law, the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018, beginning on January 1, 2020, grants consumers various rights with regard to their personal information held by businesses, including the right to request a business to disclose specific pieces of personal information it has collected. collected and the right to request a business to delete any personal information collected by the business. The act generally provides for its enforcement by the Attorney General, but also provides for a private right of action in certain circumstances. This bill would state the intent of the Legislature to enact legislation relating to the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018. The act defines “personal information” to mean information that identifies, relates to, describes, is capable of being associated with, or could reasonably be linked, directly or indirectly, with a particular consumer or household. The act excludes “publicly available information” from the definition of “personal information,” and defines the term “publicly available” to mean information that is lawfully made available from federal, state, or local government records, if any conditions associated with that information. Existing law further specifies that information is not “publicly available” if that data is used for a purpose that is not compatible with the purpose for which the data is maintained and made available in the government records or for which it is publicly maintained and specifies that “publicly available” does not include consumer information that is deidentified or aggregate consumer information. This bill would redefine “publicly available” to mean information that is lawfully made available from federal, state, or local records. The bill would delete the above language specifying the conditions in which that information is not “publicly available.” The bill would, instead, provide that “personal information” does not include deidentified or aggregate consumer information.

Consumer privacy protection.

Description
AB 950, as introduced, Levine. Consumer privacy protection. Existing law prohibits a business from requesting medical information directly from an individual regardless of whether the information pertains to the individual, and using, sharing, or otherwise disclosing that information for direct marketing purposes unless certain requirements are met, including that it disclose that it is obtaining the information to market or advertise products, goods, or services to the individual and that it obtain consent for the information to be used or shared for that purpose, as specified. This bill would require a business that conducts business in California, and that collects a California resident's consumer data, to disclose to the consumer the monetary value to the business of their consumer data by posting the average monetary value to the business of a consumer's data, including that information in its privacy policy posted on its internet website, and also including in its privacy policy disclosure of any use of a consumer's data that is not directly or exclusively related to the service that the consumer has contracted the business to provide, as specified. The bill would also require a business that conducts business in California, that collects a California resident's consumer data, and that sells that data, to disclose to the consumer the average price it is paid for a consumer's data and to disclose to the consumer the actual price it was paid for a consumer's data upon receipt of a verifiable request for that information from the consumer. This bill would also establish the Consumer Data Privacy Commission comprised of members of academia, civil society, and industry to provide guidance to the Legislature regarding appropriate metrics and methodology for determining the value of consumer data. The bill would require the commission to report its findings to the Legislature on or before January 1, 2021.
